WASHINGTON TECHNOLOGY MAGAZINE RANKS CENTECH IN TOP 100 GOVERNMENT CONTRACTORS LIST

CENTECH Comes in at #92 on List

Washington Technology Magazine has released their annual list of Top 100 federal government contractors and THE CENTECH GROUP, Inc. (CENTECH) has landed at #92. The magazine, and their partners at FedSources, used over 700 product service codes and revenue figures to determine the rankings. According to their data, CENTECH posted $147.5 million in contract revenues for fiscal year 2007, which ended September 30, 2007.

Using data from the Federal Procurement Data System-Next Generation, Lockheed Martin, Boeing, Northrop Grumman, Raytheon and SAIC took the top 5 positions on this years list and had revenues ranging from almost $13.5 billion to $5 billion. The list also included numerous CENTECH teaming partners and started at $134.5 million in contract revenues.
